--The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address--

The Appeal Brief filed on 21 November 2005 is defective for failure to comply with one or more provisions of 37 CFR 41.37.

To avoid dismissal of the appeal, applicant must file an amended brief or other appropriate correction (see MPEP 1205.03) within ONE MONTH or THIRTY DAYS from the mailing date of this Notification, whichever is longer.
EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136.

2. ☐ The brief does not contain a statement of the status of all claims, (e.g., rejected, allowed, withdrawn, objected to, canceled), or does not identify the appealed claims (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(iii)).
3. ☐ At least one amendment has been filed subsequent to the final rejection, and the brief does not contain a statement of the status of each such amendment (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(iv)).
4. ☒ (a) The brief does not contain a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal, referring to the specification by page and line number and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters; and/or (b) the brief fails to: (1) identify, for each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately, every means plus function and step plus function under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, and/or (2) set forth the structure, material, or acts described in the specification as corresponding to each claimed function with reference to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v)).

Art Unit: 3617

The Brief fails to comply with the requirements of 37 CFR 41.37.

Item 5 of the Brief is improperly titled. The correct title is “Summary of claimed subject matter”.

It is noted that under item 5, a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in the independent claim involved in the appeal should be provided. Appellant should avoid discussion of subject matter not specifically found in the appealed claim. A specific reference to the specification by page and line number and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters should also be provided.

Item 6 of the Brief should be “Grounds of rejection to be reviewed on appeal”.

It is noted that under item 6, a concise statement of the ground of rejection should be presented for review. This statement should not include any arguments concerning the merits of the ground of rejection.

Item 7 should be the “Argument”. The grouping of claims is no longer necessary.

Item 8 should be the “Appendix” including the appealed claims on a separate sheet.

Items 9 and 10 should be provided entitled, “Evidence appendix” and “Related proceedings appendix”, respectively, with the indication “none”, if no material is available for these two items.

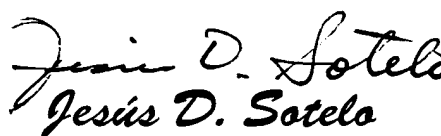

Appellant is referred to MPEP 1205 (rev. August 2005), for the specific requirements in an appeal brief.
